Although on a normal day work DOES get done peacefully in class or in the library, there are those times when the natives may get a little restless...

STEP BY STEP

Homecoming evening of November 28th started out with the Trojans trouncing the Potomac Artesians by a score of 104-32. After the game, the coronation was held. Carol Williams and Jim Carley were crowned the 1981-82 Queen and King. David Goodhue, who led the crowning, was Master of Ceremonies for the evening. The night will be well-remembered as an enjoyable event for all who attended.

"Come on in you guys; the moneybox isn't full yet!"

"Now, where was I?"

"Don't trip over the streamers!"

"Boy, was I surprised!"

Leapin' Liz-ards! Look at all that white stuff! Little did we know that soon after our overwhelming homecoming victory, we'd be facing some REAL challenges—record-breaking sub-zero temperatures and enough snow to cool the jets of the hardiest Eskimo! But we plowed right through all those snow days without too many complaints or cold toes, eagerly anticipating the summer hum of mosquitoes and air conditioners!

Cold nose, warm heart?

Giving the cold shoulder to Old Man Winter and his negative attitude this year were Liz Allen, Liz Sollars, and Liz Camp.

At Work on the Yearbook

N.H.S.

To become a National Honor Society member, a student must show signs of outstanding scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Eligible candidates with a grade-point average of 4.0 or better will be inducted second semester after consideration by selected staff members and advisor Mrs. Roberts. The 1981-82 officers included President Cindy Fleming, Vice-president Jim Carley, Secretary Tina Carter, and Treasurer Janet Burton.

Band & Chorus Enjoy Their Achievements!

Armstrong's band and chorus were active and acclaimed under the first-year leadership of Miss Susan Gerling. Early in the year a welcomed visit from the Chanute Air Force Jazz Band enlivened the students' day and really shook the rafters in the new gym! Everyone also enjoyed a visit to see Annie at the Assembly Hall. The busy pace for both band and chorus included concerts here and at the grade schools, playing at home games, and several music contests in which many ATHS'ers received firsts. Robert Herndon received the privilege of attending the All-State gathering at Springfield, an honor awarded to 1100 out of 5000 students throughout Illinois. A super year!

Fun and hard work combine for a pleasant year in music!

Swing into Spring '82!

The 1982 spring concert brought back old memories. This year Armstrong's band and chorus created a swing choir and enthusiastically performed music and dance from the Fifties. Kendra Smiley generously offered her time and talent to choreograph and conduct the swing choir while Susan Gerling accompanied them at the piano. There were also many solo and ensemble performances, such as that of Tina Carter pictured at the right, from students who received a first or second placing at contests. And the band played while the chorus sang for the rest of the evening's entertainment—a great way to break Old Man Winter's monotonous sights and sounds!

The Spanish Club's activities included the Halloween party at Jeana Tucker's, the Christmas potluck and gift exchange, the skating party, and Spanish Club Week which included a dance, speaker, posters, food and dress-up day. A busy year! Officers (below) included Dennis Dautzenberg as President, Jeana Tucker as Vice-president, Becky Cook as Secretary and Debbie Davis as Treasurer.

Future Homemakers of America

Jan Schlueter and Rhonda McElhoe help Miss Graumenz prepare for the banquet.

FHA officers included Historian Gail Hoveln, Secretary Janet Burton, President Rhonda McElhoe, Vice President Cindy Fleming and Treasurer Teri Snyder.

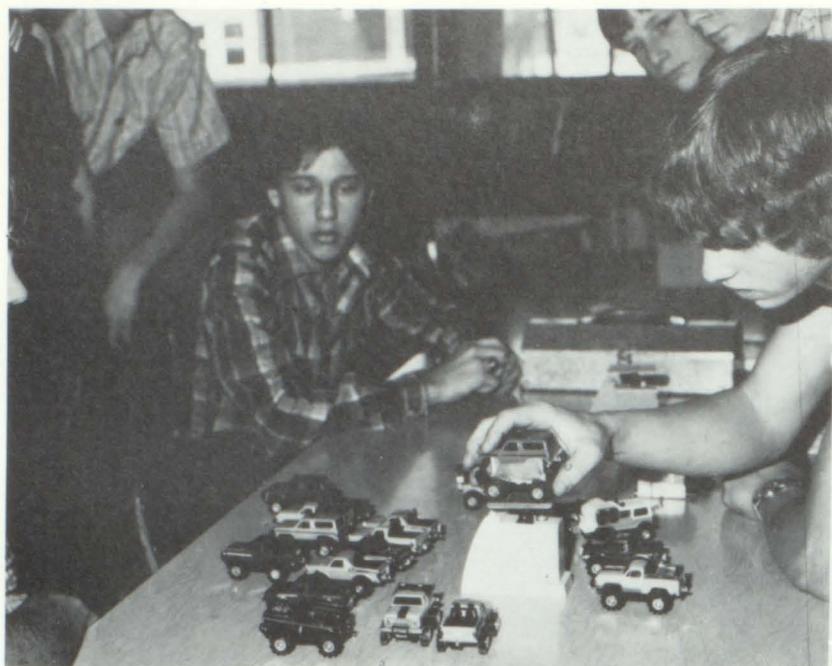

The Armstrong Chapter of Future Homemakers had a busy year. Starting the year was the FHA-FFA Wiener Roast and then the Sadie Hawkins Dance, also sponsored by both organizations. Selling projects this year included candy and bake sales. In December, the Chapter went to Chicago for a shopping trip and later held a Christmas party. The Sweetheart Dance held with Potomac was quite a success. A welcome to the eighth grade girls, including games and food, ended the year's activities.

The ATHS Student Council was very active this year. The twenty-one member club used its money, gathered from pop sales, to acquire a juke box which was placed in the gym. In addition to several exciting assemblies, the Student Council sponsored its week of special activities in the spring. Included this year were a student teacher day, elections, a criminologist lecture, punk rock fun, and the annual class competition. Well done, council members!

Volleyball Teams Work Hard

JV Wins First Place!

"The Armstrong girls' volleyball teams showed much improvement this year," stated first-year coach, Linda Lomax. Although the varsity group didn't realize their full potential, the junior varsity team had a whopping record of 7 wins and 1 loss, allowing them to receive the All-Conference trophy for first place. Janet Burton and Julie Buck also received the All-Conference players' award this year. Attending the U. of I. volleyball camp will heighten the teams' confidence and ability next season!

Row 3: Coach Krapf, Randall Zindars, Tracy Scheurich, Mitchell Schluter, Jim Vermillion, Brian Elliott, Mark Youmans. The J. V. Team included the above members with Steve Anderson and Dennis Dautzenberg.

Varsity players: Julie Buck, Ranae Rademacher, Dawn Smith, Coach Bezely, Lisa Pflugmacher, Sara Pflugmacher, Mary Camp.

Another Victorious Season for the Girls!

Post-game relief!

Parental Support!

Pre-game bravery!

It was another exciting and successful year for both the girls' basketball teams. The varsity set a record this year for the most wins with 18 wins and 9 losses. They finished either third or fourth in all the tournaments they played. Their season ended with a 5-2 record in the Iroquois Conference and the East Central Conference. The dedicated girls beat three of the local teams in regular season who won their regionals.

The J. V. ended up with a 13-5 record. They achieved a second place in the I. C. C.

Ranae Rademacher won first team honors in the Iroquois, East Central and Vermilion County choices. Dawn Smith and Sara Pflugmacher also made team honors. Congratulations to both teams!!

Coach Bezely and J. V. players: Ginger Hunt, Tammy Teeslink, Teresa Teeslink, Kathy Fogal, Laura Frerichs.

Scott, Jerry and Jim Set School Track Records!

Track members included, in the front, Dennis Dautzenberg, Gary Freymiller, Randall Zindars, and in the back, Robert Herndon, Scott Sieberns, Jim Carley, Bryan Severs, Jerry Keen and Coach Smiley. Not pictured are Mike Watson and Alan Duden.

Scott Sieberns set not only the school record in the shot put, but he also made the All County and ECC track teams and went to State. Jerry set the record in the 2-mile race and made All County Cross Country by finishing seventh in the meet. JC set the discus record and placed second in the County. GREAT WORK, GUYS!

Track and Cross Country

The cast and crew of (almost) thousands included the helpers at the bottom: Laurie Fourez, Rhonda McElhoe, Phil Davis, Jim Carley, Tim Thilmony, Mitchell Schluter and John Laflen; cast members in the middle: David Goodhue, Andrew Dewey, Dennis Dautzenberg, Joe Buck, John Miles, Steve Anderson, Jeff Buck, Chris Ross; and cast at the top: Beth Marron, Julie Buck, Janet Burton, Sandra Buck, Christina Hesterberg, Robert Herndon, Vonda Pflugmacher, Gary Freymiller, Gail Hoveln, Jan Schluter, Mary Camp and Becky Cook. Everyone involved in the play did a terrific job!

Under the successful direction of Evelyn Miller and Sue Gerling, a little bit of Roaring Twenties' madness came to Armstrong High when two lovable vaudevillian villains, Fish and Hooker (Freymiller and Herndon), took to the stage singing, dancing and dramatizing in "Vaudeville's My Home." Broke and stranded in a small town, the two troupers planned to swindle the townspeople and ended up with a production they hadn't quite expected! With the piano accompaniment of Rita Graumenz and choreographic help of Kendra Smiley, the ATHS thespians created two exciting evenings of musical and comic entertainment. BRAVO!! (And who said, "Everybody knows that high school plays are just a waste of time!!"?)

“Stand By Me”

Jolie Stewart welcomed everyone to the prom of 1982, held May 8 at The Lodge in Rossville. The country theme was set off by the rustic decorations created by Ranae Rademacher, Dale Wilken, Jolie, and Vonda Pflugmacher. After a response by Gary Freymiller and invocation by John Smiley, a huge meal was enjoyed. Vonda and Bryan Severs were the next hits of the evening as they read the hilarious prophecy, followed by Gary's and Jim Carley's readings of the seniors' wacky wills. The Night Riders Band set the crowd rocking, and the time was enjoyed by all. A special “Thank You!” goes out to Joanne Tate whose masterful energy, efficiency and clever ideas always ensure a pleasant prom!
